A Greeting Card

Lesson 1

Reading and Understanding

Story

A Birthday Card for Sara

Today is Sara's birthday. Her friend Amina wants to make her happy.

Amina makes a colourful birthday card. She draws balloons, flowers, and a big cake on it.

She writes, "Happy Birthday, Sara!"

At the party, Amina gives the card to Sara.

Sara smiles and says, "Thank you!"

The friends have fun, eat cake, and play games together.

SLOs

By the end of this lesson, students will be able to:

-  Look at pictures and guess what a story is about, before reading it.
-  Follow the correct order of steps or events while reading a story.
-  Answer simple questions to show you understood the story.
-  Understand what a book's "title" is, and predict a story from its title.
-  Read and recognise common sight words by sight.

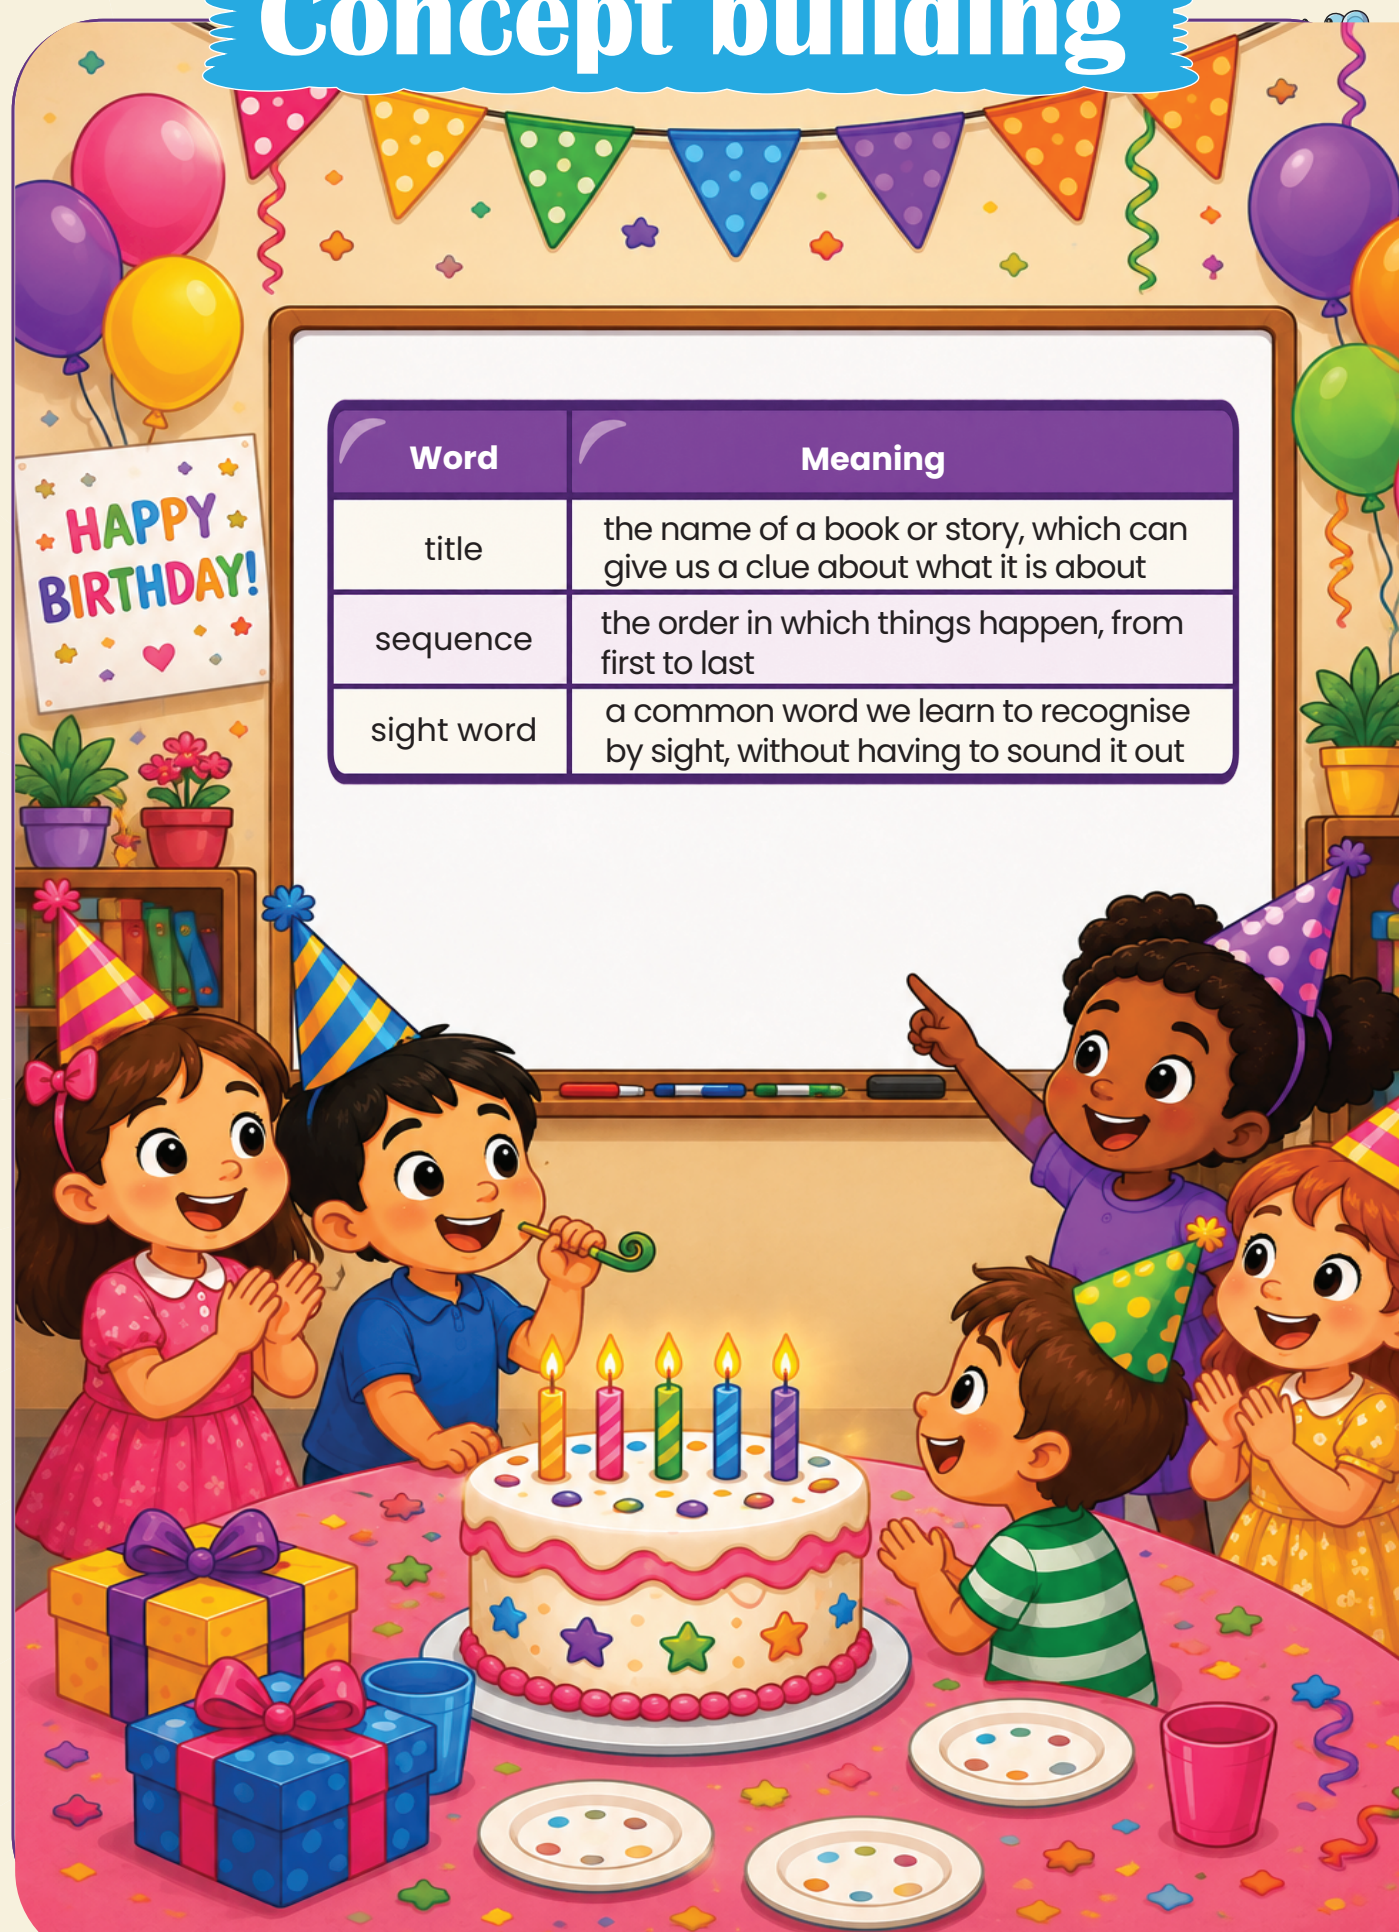

Warm up Activity!

A Greeting Card

Think of a card you have received or made before.
Who was it for, and what did you draw or write on it?

Concept building

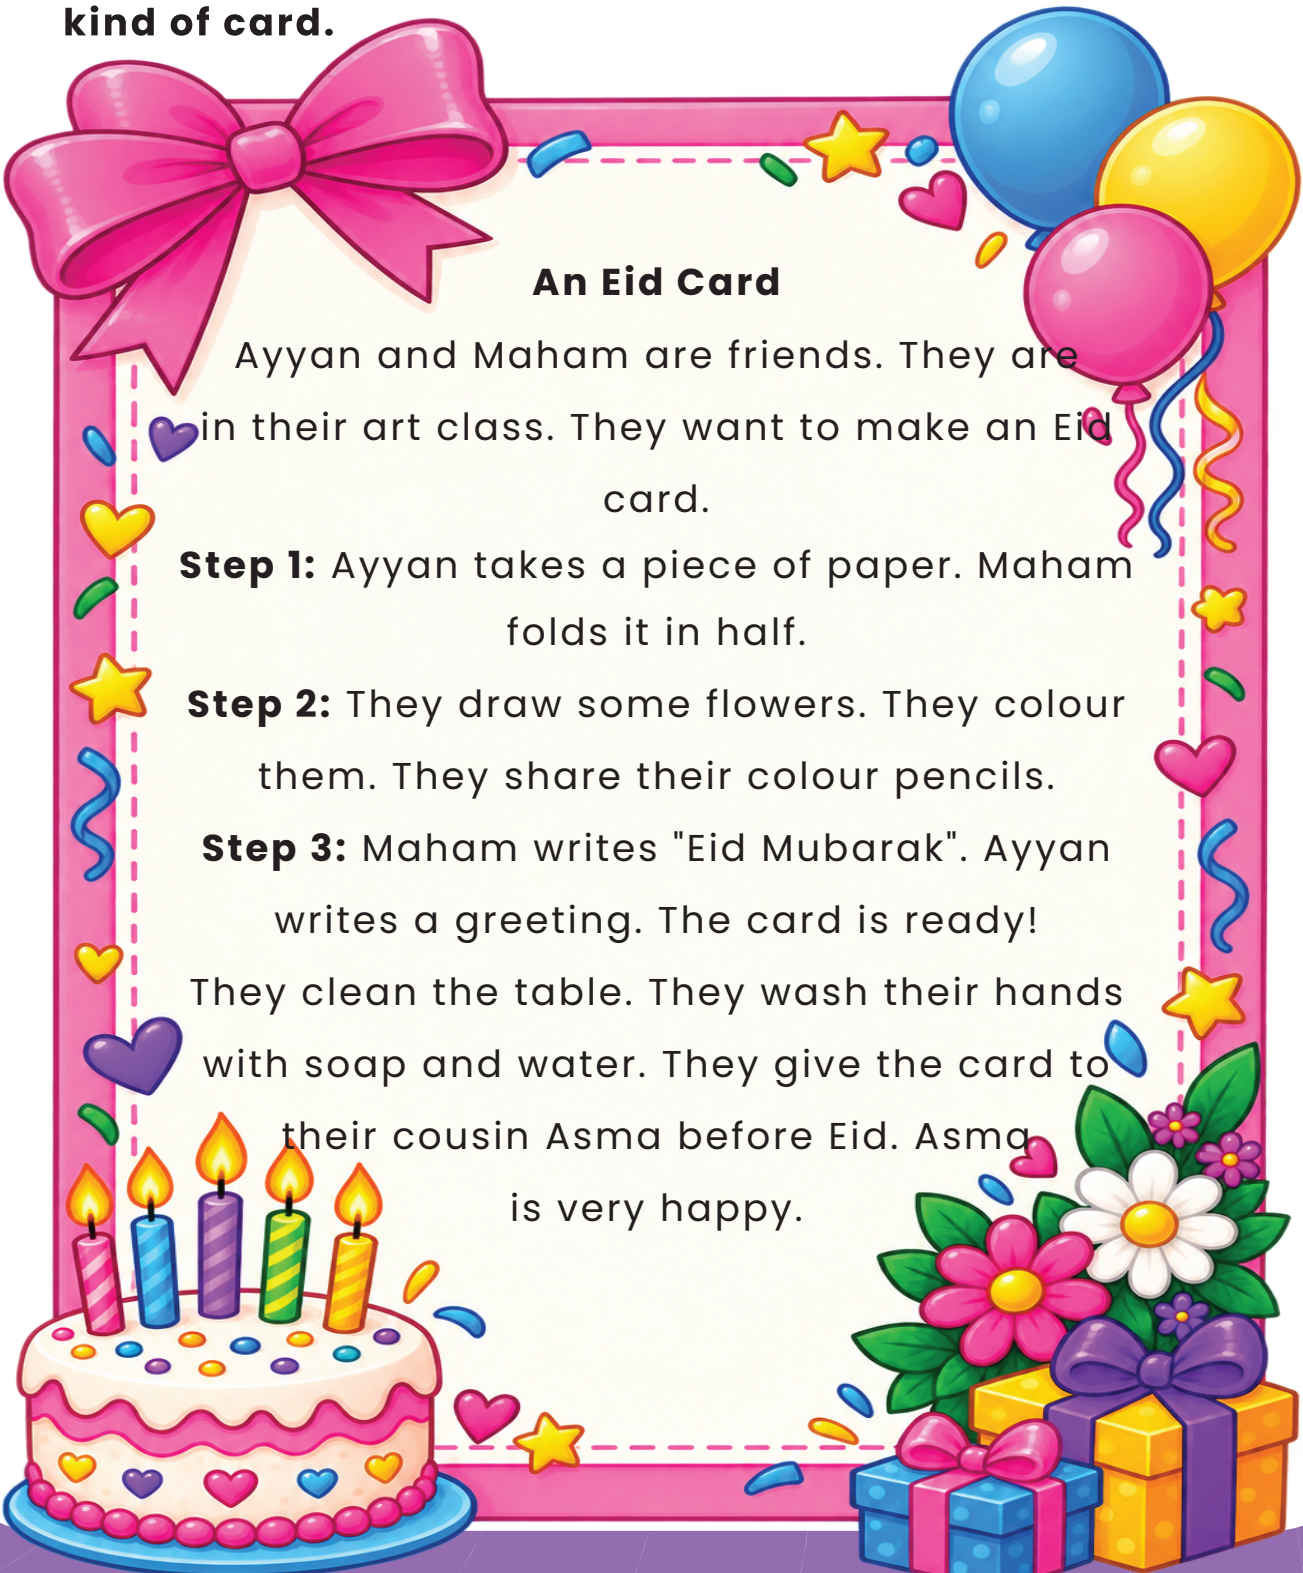

Word	Meaning
title	the name of a book or story, which can give us a clue about what it is about sequence	the order in which things happen, from first to last
sight word	a common word we learn to recognise by sight, without having to sound it out

Answer these questions about Amina's story above.

- Whose birthday was it? _____
- What did Amina make for Sara? _____

Now read a story about two friends making a different kind of card.

An Eid Card

Ayyan and Maham are friends. They are in their art class. They want to make an Eid card.

Step 1: Ayyan takes a piece of paper. Maham folds it in half.

Step 2: They draw some flowers. They colour them. They share their colour pencils.

Step 3: Maham writes "Eid Mubarak". Ayyan writes a greeting. The card is ready!

They clean the table. They wash their hands with soap and water. They give the card to their cousin Asma before Eid. Asma is very happy.
